

UPCOMING EVENTS

February 26
Middle School Dance
ESA Chapel, 7-9:30pm

March 3
National Honor Society Banquet
Petroleum Club, 6:30pm

March 5 & 6
ESA Performing Arts Musical (see below)

March 12
Early Dismissal
11:55am, both campuses

$6,100,770

One School, One Future

Campaign Contributors

We've surpassed $6 million with nearly 300 gifts from parents, faculty and staff members, grandparents, trustees, past parents and trustees, foundations, organizations, alumni and friends. Every gift makes a difference. Click here to donate today. Thank you!

The second story and the second slab are underway. Roof coming next week!

More photos here!

The ESA Performing Arts Department presents

March 5 and 6 at 7 pm
The Chapel in Cade
Tickets: $5 student and $10 adults
Tickets available at 337-365-1416 or at the door

The National Honor Society will hold its annual banquet next Wednesday, March 3, at the Petroleum Club. This year's members (above) have been volunteering at a local Boys' and Girls' Club each week.

Join the ESA walkers!

ESA students, parents and teachers are joining together to support JDRF—the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

March 1—Students Virginia Walker, '12, and Chris Young, '14, will lead a Chapel describing the ESA team's efforts.

March 3—Eat at Buffalo Wild Wings in Lafayette
20% of proceeds go to support JDRF

March 3—Not-So-Free-Dress in Cade ($3)

March 13—Walk to Cure Diabetes in Girard Park
Parents, siblings and friends are welcome to join the ESA walkers.

The ESA team is selling t-shirts, $10 for non-walkers and $5 for walkers.
Make checks payable to ESA.

Register for the walk at walk.jdrf.org. Look for the walk in Lafayette, then ESA's team.

Clay was flying this afternoon in the Lower School pottery cluster (above) and in Upper School sculpture (left).

Ms. Mollie leads PreK-4 students through a warm-up exercise in music class—stomping to the loud drumbeats and tiptoeing to the soft ones.